2012: Making The Shift to Living Your Soul-Centered Intuitive Life

As we approach the year 2012, it is no longer a question that we are undergoing an extraordinary and unprecedented shift in this world. We know everything is changing - and, we know that everything needs to change for the better. Yet, for many of us, it is also a time of intense challenges which brings about great uncertainty about exactly where we are headed and what we must do to get there. It is becoming quite apparent, too, that we can't go at it alone: One way or another, we will need each other to fulfill our collective destiny. And, to solve the massive systemic problems we are living with in the world, we will need to shift our consciousness into a radically new realm of understanding, wisdom and compassion. Humanity must make that leap from being the body-centered intellectual race that it has been for millennia to becoming the spirit-based intuitive race it is destined to be. Only then will fundamental changes become possible, not only for us, but for the generations to come.

In this ground-breaking workshop, renowned spiritual teacher and award-winning author of YOU ARE THE ANSWER, Michael J Tamura, will teach you how to recognize, nourish, and guide yourself and your loved ones as the immortal souls that you, and they, are. Not only is this the essential step to making your shift to living a spirit-based intuitive life, you cannot succeed without being able to do the same in relationship to others in your life, especially those closest to you - your partner, your children, your friends and colleagues. He will also teach you simple but powerful spiritual practices and psychic tools to help you relate to yourself and one another as immortal souls. Learn how you can spiritually change the conditions in your life and in the world around you from the inside out and make the shift to living your extraordinary soul life.

Living By Intuition:

Learning the Language of Spirit to Live Your Purpose

Have you ever “known” the answer, but didn’t act on it, only to find out later that you were right? How many times have you kicked yourself for not following through on an intuition you had when you discovered, after the fact, that it would have helped you? How often have you spent days trying to figure out a solution to a problem and then realized that you knew the solution all along? Don’t spend your life second guessing yourself anymore.

In this powerful workshop with Michael Tamura, you will learn to live according to what you know to be correct for you rather than twisting your brain into a pretzel trying to figure it all out. Michael will teach you how to live much more intuitively as it relates to the massive shift that humanity is undergoing now to make the evolutionary jump from being an ego-centered, intellectual race into a spirit-centered, intuitive one. Learn to be prepared for 2012 and to correctly manage your intuition now!

True intuition derives from having certainty in Divinity. To live intuitively, you need to learn to speak and comprehend the universal language of spirit. And, you need to have the courage to act on your intuitive knowing, even when others try to invalidate you.

Come learn the secrets to speaking the language of spirit and access your intuition. This is a golden opportunity to have Michael J Tamura, world-renowned spiritual teacher, clairvoyant visionary, healing and psychic development pioneer, and author of YOU ARE THE ANSWER, show you how to intuitively know what is correct or true for you each step on your path in life. Develop your certainty in yourself as the spirit that you are and learn to live the miracle.
