What is doubt and how do you get beyond it whenever it comes into your mind? You can choose to stay hostage to doubts or you can choose to follow your heart and take your next step. The Chinese sage Lao-Tzu said that the journey of a thousand miles begins with just one step. That first step to the journey of life is always your next step wherever you may be on that trek. Following the compass of your heart and using your intuitive knowing, are the keys to always being able to take that first, next step, wherever you are headed. You'll learn how to do that in Saturday's seminar, When In Doubt, Follow Your Heart: *How to Use Intuition to Take Your Next Step. You'll also learn simple, yet powerful psychic tools to help you let go of doubts, have certainty in your intuitive knowingness, and find courage to take your next step in life, wherever that may lead you. You'll learn the all-important secret of how to use a single moment of clarity and certainty to guide you through the jungle of doubts and invalidation that may follow. It's time to enjoy life to its fullest.

Then, on Sunday, in Navigating Life's Challenges: *Using Imagination & Intuition to Open New Doors, we'll delve into the limitlessly creative process of using imagination and intuition to open new byways, while navigating through the often turbulent seas of life. You'll learn how to start living more of the miracle of your life as spirit. You'll discover how to discern between letting go of those problems you face in life that are not yours to solve and tackling your true creative challenges that you are here to learn your soul lessons from. You'll also learn the tools needed to make all of that not only doable, but enjoyable. Come learn to make each of life's seeming challenges your creative opportunity as a soul to appreciate and celebrate. You'll discover that life is meant to be enjoyed!
