Dear Friends and Awakening Souls,

We're getting ready to launch a whole new series of TeleClasses for all of you who are growing spiritually and seeking answers to what's going on with you as you do so. Yes, things change rapidly when you begin to awaken more as the soul that you are. Becoming more aware is a major part of your spiritual growth, but what happens to you as you wake up more to who you truly are?

At times it's joyous and exhilarating, but at other times, it could be a pain - or at least not too much fun. And, having a wonderful day one day and then feeling like a Mack truck ran you over the next morning could be a bit confusing. "I'm doing so much better," you think to yourself one day and then the next day you find yourself down in the dumps! Hey, what's that all about? Yes, shift happens and when it does in a big way within your mind, it changes, well, pretty much everything. It's a bit like having sat on your legs folded under you for a long time, they go numb and you don't feel anything. Then, when you stand up and the blood flow returns to your legs - oh, the pins and needles! Ow! That's a physical analogy of becoming more aware at first. Each time you expand or deepen your awareness into an area of your mind that heretofore you've been asleep to, you may get a kind of "pins and needles" reaction at first - emotions, thoughts, and other energies of all kinds (often not too pleasant) surface in your newly gained awareness.

Yet, fear not! (As angels are wont to say.) It's time to celebrate your newfound awareness, even if what you've become more aware of at first is a lot of mental and emotional muck. It just means you're done holding on to them any longer. Yay! So, let all that be what they are - energetic muck - and carry on! And, we're here to help you along on your path of awakening and growing spiritually.

The good - no great - news is that You Might Be More Psychic Than You Think! We already know you are, but we want you to know it, too. Even those who already are "practicing" psychics who know they are psychic are more psychic than they think they are. How much more psychic you really are than you think you are is generally directly proportional to how much trouble you are having from being more psychic than you are aware of.

Yep. Being psychic is fantastic - no holds barred! The more psychic, the better. There's actually no downside to being psychic like many people tend to think. But....ah, yes, there's that proverbial "but"...to the degree that you are not aware of how and in what ways you are psychic and you are not correctly managing your psychic abilities, they work against you because you tend to fight them. Many awakening souls experience things that are not enjoyable or even pleasant, not because there's something wrong with them, but only because they aren't aware how to correctly relate to and manage their own psychic awareness and energy. So, we came up with this new teleclass series to address each of the major and essential psychic abilities that you already have and are actively - but often unconsciously - using that may be giving you a variety of annoying or even challenging problems, like knowing you ought to be happier, but not being able to feel happy; or not knowing what to do about all those pesky thoughts that keep running through your mind that you don't want to think; or not knowing if the answer you're getting inside of you is actually a good one or it's just your wishful thinking - or worse. Many of you could have your psychic healing ability going wild, what with so many people tearing their hair out these days trying to keep up with everything daily life seems to demand of them. If you do and you're not consciously being able to manage it, you may have the experience of being inundated with everyone else's problems and those around you go away feeling better and you feel wiped out! Yes, You Might Be More Psychic Than You Think!

We welcome you to join us in our new series of teleclasses and learn much more about your various psychic abilities, become more aware of how they work in you, what their purpose is, and how to not only develop them further but to do so with awareness and tools so you can manage them properly. It's time to fully enjoy being psychic - because it is wonderful. Your psychic abilities stepping up just means that you are starting to become more aware of yourself as the immortal soul that you are. And, when you begin to use your psychic abilities more consciously, you will be able to experience yourself as the soul that you already are.

5/10 Thursday 6 PM - 8 PM (PDT)

TC1- Trouble Sorting Out Your Thoughts? Maybe You're Telepathic!

Telepathy is the psychic ability through which you can both mentally transmit as well as receive thoughts. Many people, especially awakening souls, don't realize just how telepathic they really are. A lot of that is due to them assuming that telepathy is a gift only certain people have and that when a person has it, he or she would be able to tell what anyone is thinking any time on demand - and be right every time. You can become an expert telepath like that, but, most of us don't. That doesn't mean you don't use your telepathy all of the time. Yet, more often than not, unless you're aware of using it as well as know how to maintain that ability correctly, your telepathy can actually pack your mind with too many thoughts that you can't make heads or tails about. So, learn to recognize when and how your telepathy is working, how to make use of it, and to clean and maintain your telepathic space in your mind so that you don't suffer a mental traffic jam.

5/27 Sunday 10 AM - 12 PM (PDT)

TC2 - What You Feel May Not Be How You Feel: Managing Your Clairsentience

Clairsentience is the ability to feel various energies psychically both within yourself as well as in others: emotional, sexual and other desires, and the feeling of safety and comfort or pain and discomfort. Most people assume that what they feel is how they are actually feeling. If you're feeling fear, you might assume that you are afraid or if you're feeling anger that you are angry. But, are you? Chances are, especially if you're an awakening soul and seeking to further yourself on your spiritual path, that much of what you are feeling belongs to others that you care about and to those who may be around you. If you are a soul that cares deeply about others, your clairsentience may be working overtime feeling what everyone else is feeling - especially if they're not feeling well or they're unhappy. So, it's time to learn to recognize your clairsentience ability, what you're doing with it and how you're using it, and learn to more consciously direct your ability so that you can use it to fulfill your purpose and benefit both yourself and others.

6/9 Saturday 10 AM - 12 PM (PDT)

TC3 - Is It Intuition or Your Ego's Wishful Thinking?

Everyone is fully intuitive already. Yet, very few people actually pay attention to or follow the guidance of their true intuition. In fact, your intuition never lies or misleads you. So, what's there not to trust? Well, we've all had experiences in which we thought we were following our intuition only to be led down the primrose path, right? Then, we become a bit gun-shy. Yet, was the "guidance" we were following our true intuition or was it something else? To complicate matters a bit more, at times, we expect that our intuition was "right" only if the immediate consequence of following it leads us to wonderful and pleasant experiences. Sometimes it does, but there are many times the immediate consequence of following our intuition can, for example, result in people ridiculing us. Just look at what happened to Joan of Arc!

Intuition is a huge ability that includes many different kinds of psychic abilities. So, although intuition is extremely simple, becoming aware how it works and learning how best to use it as well as how to correctly interpret what you're getting through your intuition requires some understanding and awareness. Also, there's that other kind of "information" we often get that isn't our intuition. How can you discern what is correct information coming from your intuition and what is not intuition and is misleading information? Once you learn all of that, intuition becomes not only your most trusted friend and guide, but also simple to use. Particularly at this time in the awakening consciousness of humanity at large, learning to use your intuition correctly is a must.

6/16 Saturday 10 AM - 12 PM (PDT)

TC4 - Clairaudience: Tune-In To Your Spirit Guide “Radio Show”

Clairaudience is the psychic or soul ability to “hear” that which you can’t hear with your physical ears. What are some of those things you can hear through your clairaudience that you can’t hear with your ears? Your spirit guides, for one very important one! There are a lot of other things you can use your clairaudience to hear as well ranging from tuning into the song that’s playing on someone else’s radio a mile away or even the music of the spheres. But, back to what the most important use of your clairaudience first is for you to be able to listen to your spirit guides giving you guidance.

Being able to listen to your spirit guides giving you guidance along your path is a little like tuning your radio receiver to the right frequency to catch your favorite talk show (like, Living The Miracle with Michael and Raphaelle Tamura, every Wednesday at 11 AM Pacific on VoiceAmerica.com Empowerment Channel!). So, learning to use your clairaudience isn’t difficult, but it takes practice to become proficient at it. Otherwise, you can “hear” a lot of static, like when you’re turning the knob on the radio and you’re in-between stations. Just like the improvement in digital technology allows us now on our devices just to touch a button for our favorite station without having to search for the right frequency, you can learn to tune your clairaudience to your favorite Spirit Guide Radio Show channel so that you could listen in on demand. As with all of your other abilities, your clairaudience requires regular care and maintenance to work at its optimum. You’ll learn all of that in this class.

6/30 Saturday 10 AM - 12 PM (PDT)

TC5 - Truth or Fiction? Learn to See With Your Third Eye

Clairvoyance is the ability to “see” and discern the truth from the lies or illusions. You’ve undoubtedly heard of “opening your third eye”. It’s not quite like opening your physical eyelids in order for you to see, is it? It’s a matter of frequency again. When the “tip” of your pineal gland - part of the whole third eye complex - starts to vibrate fast enough, you begin to see more clairvoyantly. But, once again, as with your other psychic abilities, when you first begin to become more aware of your clairvoyance, you may actually misinterpret it as “not seeing anything”, especially if you see darkness or black. That’s where so many people who think they are not clairvoyant get stuck and continue to think they are not clairvoyant. After all, everyone “knows” that clairvoyants are those who see beautiful colors of people’s auras and see the future and spirit guides and what people are thinking, right? Not, necessarily. Especially in the beginning, when you raise or expand your awareness into a new area of your mind, you will most likely see all of the dust and junk mail that have piled up there for a long time. So, you need to learn to clean up the old before you might see the new.

7/28 Saturday 10 AM - 12 PM (PDT)

TC6 - Know Your Future to Live Your Present: The Purpose for Developing Precognition

Precognition is defined in the dictionary as “foreknowledge of an event, especially of a paranormal kind.” It’s a valuable psychic ability, but not in the way that many shysters have thought of, as in, “Wouldn’t it be great to accurately know the future so that we can make a ton of money gambling or on the stock market?” There’s a more profound purpose for your ability to know “the future”. In spirit, there is no past, present or future. It’s beyond all time so there is no sequence of events. That’s how some people have been able to know or see a particular future unfolding. But, there’s a lot more to seeing or knowing what your future holds than just a random, isolated peak into a future event. There’s nothing random to our future. Yet, if we changed our mind about something, it’s going to change how our future unfolds from that point in time and space. So, when you’re considering making an important choice in your course of action, for example, wouldn’t it be highly beneficial to you to be able to know the possible outcomes in the world and in your life between choosing this path or that? That’s where your conscious use of precognition becomes much more valuable. Also, if you’re using your precognition unknowingly, just like most people do daily, you might just skip all the important steps and have the experience of unease or stress when there’s nothing to be afraid of. Learn to make use of your precognition so you can live a healthier and more fulfilling present!

9/08 Saturday 10 AM - 12 PM (PDT)

TC7 - Healing Isn’t About Treating Illness, It’s Your Spiritual Growth & Fulfillment

Healing is the ability to restore to wholeness. You can use your healing ability to restore your physical, emotional and/or mental health to more wholeness or you can use it to restore your communication with someone to more wholeness. For example, antagonistic arguments and angry verbal battles are signs of unhealthy communication. Restoring that divisive communication to more wholeness results in more harmony, peace, and enjoyment of one’s relationship with the other. When you heal the communication, and therefore the relationship, it restores both people to more wholeness.

Often, healing is only considered in the context of disease and injury on a physical level. Yet, healing is so much more than that. Healing is essentially synonymous to your spiritual growth and fulfillment. After all, if the definition of healing is restoring to wholeness, then, the whole of your spiritual development process is to heal yourself and restore those aspects within your mind that have been divided against one another back to wholeness. If you utilize your innate soul ability to heal toward furthering yourself in your spiritual awareness, development and fulfillment, you will heal everyone else you come into contact with. Learn to fully use your healing ability.
