Your Power to Transform

Dear SHAPE Community & Graduates of Clairvoyant Programs, AHA! & Our Psychic Tools & Life Mastery Practices Course,

Hello, SHAPE-Shifters! The countdown has started! Well, I'm sure you've been aware it's been going on for a while already and you have your growth periods to show for it. Remember, the upcoming final SHAPE Mount Shasta Retreat Intensive of this year is about Owning Your Power and Creativity as You Manifest Who You Are in the World as Seers, Healers, Teachers, and Leaders. That should shake things up a bit, don't you think?

Those of you who have been on this adventure with us through your active participation and practice in the SHAPE Clairvoyant and Trancemediumship Mastery Course all year long have had a few glimpses of what's really going on behind the scenes. As well, many of you who have not been on this e-ride in person, but have been tagging along in the astral classes in spirit, have had to trudge through many of the same growth periods on your own in your daily lives. You've experienced a bit of both the enormous support in Spirit that is behind us moving forward and the massive wall of resistance against us from various factions hell-bent on maintaining the millennia-old status quo of divide and conquer on this planet. You could say, things are getting interesting.

There is a small minority of humanity that is steadily awakening to the reality that we are together the light of the world and there is a small minority of humanity that is fully invested in maintaining the illusion that fiction is reality and reality is fiction. That leaves the majority of the population somewhere in-between to choose between the two options. The minority that seeks to maintain the illusion of power and domination by perpetuating the game of divide and conquer depends on war of every and any kind to sustain itself. Without it, they have no standing at all. The minority that is awakening to own being the light of the world, by its very nature, cannot be divided in any way. It cannot fight against that which in truth does not exist.

The lighthouse shining in the dark seas guides sailors home, not by the imposition of force of will, but by remaining grounded, neutral, and steadfast and committed to shining its light that all who seek their way can find it. So, too, those who answer to their calling to be the light of the world must remain grounded, neutral, and steadfast and committed to shining their light that all who are seeking their way home can awaken.

Being grounded and neutral in the middle of a battlefield doesn't mean cowering in fear or being passive and ineffectual. It means that you are able to keep your sight on your destiny of freedom and not fall into the quicksand of the taunts of bullying and tempting egos. Let all the taunts and temptings in the world and in your mind be as passersby. They are temporary, just passing through your town for a time. Rather than being angered, frustrated, saddened, or jealous of anything or anyone, be happy with yourself just as you are.

Each and every one of you are here for fulfilling the purpose of fully being yourself. Of course, being yourself means expressing that which you are fully in this world. You are the light of the world. Without you being yourself, the world falls into darkness and chaos. Just as your body can only be the result of your imaginings and choices, so too, the world is only effect. If, as all the enlightened masters and mystics have declared through the ages, the world is but a dream, whose dream is it? What makes one person's dream a nightmare and another's one of bliss? What causes your dream to be the dream that you experience? And, how can you change it?

Saying that you are seers, healers, teachers, and leaders are all different ways to say the same thing: You are the light of the world. As such, you must shine like the lighthouse in the dark seas for all to see and to which they can choose, of their own volition, to set course. A lighthouse never takes up the sword or fights against hidden shoals, sunken ships, or rogue waves to prevent sailors and ships from disasters. Rather than waging war against dangers and threats, it steadily shines its light and guides all who seek it to safe waters to their destinations. Seers shine their light toward the limitlessness of truth. Healers share the never-ending beauty of condition-less love. Teachers offer the all-giving wisdom of eternal life. Leaders blaze the trail to the infinite joy of freedom. Each is but a facet of the diamond that you are.

Remember, demonstrating, sharing, and living what you've learned is the final test of your learning. And, it's not a test that you pass once. It's an on-going test until your learning simply becomes a part of you. This is the real learning - transmuting your life experience into wisdom.

Your growth periods have been opportunities for you to let go of whatever remains of the past, regarding the chapter of the story of your life that you have just finished writing. It's time to begin writing your next chapter. It's a new beginning. As the saying goes, "Out with the old, in with the new." You've been raising your havingness for expressing your creative power. It's time to imaginatively express a new facet of your diamond's brilliance. That's what you've been working on within yourself and your life has given you ample opportunities to express heretofore unexpressed aspects of your creative power.

To help you move along this part of your path with more grace and joy, we're starting with the Pre-Retreat TeleSeminar on Freeing Up Your Imagination and Powering Up Your Creativity. Then, of course, we'll get together here in Mount Shasta for the Retreat Intensive on Owning Your Power and Creativity: Manifesting Who You Are in the World as Seers, Healers, Teachers, and Leaders. Remember, too, to up your imagination and creativity for our annual SHAPE Costume Theme Soul Celebration on the Saturday Evening of the Retreat! This time you can "Come as an Emissary from Another Star System". You are a clairvoyant reader, healer, teacher, and leader in another star system. You have come to Earth for the first time as a representative from a planet in your star system to share with human beings important information, wisdom, technology, prophecy, and/or some other message from your star system that you know will help human beings wake up and learn to live together in peace. Before you venture out into the world at large here, you are visiting the SHAPE Community of clairvoyant readers, healers, teachers, and leaders to share your mission and so that you can better prepare what to expect when you meet with other Earthlings ranging from laborers and professionals to politicians and saints. Be sure to express the unique body, personality, and soul traits of your particular race.

Of course, following the Retreat Intensive Weekend itself, we'll open our home to all of you who wish to stay a couple of extra days in Mount Shasta to enjoy being part of our SHAPE Community and have the opportunity to communicate and integrate in a different kind of sanctuary. So, we'll have our open house after-social on Monday from 1 PM on till late night and again on Tuesday from 1 PM on till late. Then, we'll round out the whole retreat curriculum with our special Post-Retreat TeleSeminar on Shape-Shifting: Your Power to Transform. Yes, this will be a joyous power- and creativity-packed adventure! Pack your enthusiasm and amusement and get ready!

Remember to read and reflect on the Retreat Packet you can access here: The October 2018 Retreat Packet
