Live as a Joyous Creative Soul: Harness Your Imagination, Clairvoyance & Intuition To Manifest All You Need Along Your Path

In Beautiful Morschach, Switzerland
at Mattli Antoniushaus on the "Sun Terrace Above Lake Uri"

Dear Friends and Awakening Souls,

We are delighted to be able to invite you to our first 3-Day Retreat Intensive ever in Switzerland! Our host, Wolfgang Jaeger of Forum im Licht, discovered a most beautiful retreat sanctuary in Morschach, Switzerland, where I would be able to offer even more of my teaching this October. Wolfgang and Marianne took Raphaele and me on a tour of the Mattli Antoniushaus Retreat Hotel nestled in the lap of Mother Nature, overlooking the southern part of spectacular Lake Lucerne, after our Swiss teaching tour last May. This former Franciscan monastery was transformed by Swiss design and engineering into a grace-filled, serene educational and wellness retreat center with 60 beautiful lodging rooms. If I were to request the kind of place I would like to teach and stay in, this place would be it. As if that wasn't enough to convince us to come back to this amazing retreat sanctuary, we got to have lunch there on the deck with a stunning view of the mountains and valley. The food was oh-so-fresh, healthy, and delectable. I would have been happy to just stay there!

The great news is that we get to go back this October! And we welcome you to join us there for at least three days of restoring yourself as spirit in your mind and body, as you learn to take your next step in living more joyously as the creative, psychic soul that you are. You are each here on earth to discover, learn, and fulfill your purpose as souls. The biggest part of fulfilling your soul purpose is to get to know yourselves and live as the immortal souls that you are.

Prior to your birth here on earth, you knew yourself as spirit and after you make your departure from your earthly body, you will know yourself as spirit. It is during your incarnation here that you tend to forget from whence you came and to whence you'll return. The strenuous demands of keeping your body alive, healthy, and capable in this turbulent world, more often than not, take their toll on your light and awareness. You begin to fall asleep to your true nature and begin to doubt and worry about how you will find your way through life. You need to pay rent and you need money for groceries, clothing, transportation, and even for ways to communicate with everyone. You have to have a way to earn a regular income. You have relationships to cultivate and maintain. You might have children to raise, elders to care for. With your mind on all of that, how can you find certainty about what path you need to follow to fulfill your destiny? Or, you might end up settling for being just a bit happier in your life. Yet, your happiness is dependent on you finding your own true path and having certainty in yourself as the spirit that you are. If you take care of being true to yourself as spirit, you will be happy, guaranteed! Then, being happy, you can go on to fulfill your purpose.

To fully be yourself, however, you can't just sit in meditation and not live the rest of your life here. Being yourself requires you to express the inner creativity of who you are. You are a most creative soul and whenever you let yourself fully be as you are, you can't help but to creatively express yourself. When you are living as the spirit that you are, your doing comes out of your being. But, most people in the world today separate their doing from who they are or their beingness. So, what they do in life stops being an effortless flow out of who they are. And, they feel divided and isolated from the wholeness of life.

How are you to restore yourself to being at one with the limitless, eternal, joyous and loving spirit that you are? You have to not only know yourself more, but also express your inner creativity much more in the world. The wonderful thing is that the world offers you countless opportunities that require you to express your inner creativity every single day. Ah, but when you don't have certainty in who you are as a soul, then, you end up expressing what and how most people do, rather than what and how you would express yourself.

Between all the things that you have to do everyday, just to get by in life in this world, and the need to more fully express yourself as a creative soul, you have the golden opportunity to get to know yourself, as well as, fulfill more of your purpose here. To utilize that opportunity, you have to learn to harness more of your imagination, clairvoyance, and intuition, so that you can use them to manifest all that you need along your path. You'll learn that there is a world of difference between trying to get things that you need in your life and being able to manifest them as spirit. The end result may appear similar, but how you bring it all about is entirely different. But, isn't "getting" a job the same as "manifesting" the same job? Not at all. When you go "get" a job, you are doing so as a body. When you "manifest" even the exact same job, you are doing so as spirit. This is where learning to use your imagination, clairvoyance, and intuition become necessary to further yourself on your path.

To help you do that, I will teach you to more fully Live as a Joyous Creative Soul by showing you how to

Harness Your Imagination, Clairvoyance
& Intuition To Manifest All You Need
Along Your Path.

What I teach comes from all that I've learned from my own experience of living this way for most of the past 65 years. You will also learn many simple, but powerful psychic tools and spiritual practices in simplifying the creative process, so that you can manifest more readily what you need in your life to help you along your path. You will learn to apply this process to whatever it is that you would like to manifest in your life, whether it is a new computer, a different job, a more loving relationship, some needed communication, enjoyment, or healing for yourself or others. You will have a lot of fun learning to use more of your innate soul creativity to manifest and live a joy-filled life of purpose.

My favorite way of teaching has always been in a retreat-setting, because profound learning happens not only in the seminar or workshop itself, but during the social times during breaks, meals, and while on nature walks or just hanging out together. The retreat format will give us a lot more time to be together and communicate and integrate what happens during the workshops in a different space. Of course, being immersed in the beauty of nature and in a more pristine healing environment will add enormously to our experience. Enjoying delicious and healthy meals together would top it off! Yes, I'll start packing for this retreat now!

May the Light of Truth illuminate your path ever more brightly and God's Love guide your every step.

With gratitude, love, and joyous celebration of life,

Michael
