*Dear SHAPE Community & Graduates of Clairvoyant Programs,
AHA! & Our Psychic Tools & Life Mastery Practices Course,*

What a year it has been so far! You've been preparing well for this for years - and it shows. As I've been saying for a while, this year is an extraordinary year for all of you who are committed to your spiritual growth and fulfillment of your true purpose. While the world may appear to be topsy-turvy, loopy, and, at times, even scary, you're surfing the bigger waves quite nicely. Last year, you took care of your own metamorphosis. This year, you're riding the first wave-set of a global transformation.

First wave-set? Well, who's counting anyway, right? Hahahaha....Of course, when do you start counting wave-sets? Yet, they do say that the middle wave in each set tends to be the biggest one. Some people refer to it as the 7th wave, since in some places the waves tend to come in sets of 14 or so and the seventh wave would be the one in the middle of that set. After the biggest one, the waves tend to decrease in size until they seemingly disappear for a while. All I'm saying is that we're starting to count the waves now to get a sense of the storms out at sea causing the current wave-set. In the world, the waves may start getting bigger.

Here, we're talking about our current global transformation. The world has been building up to this for quite a while. We're getting prepared to take a collective quantum leap into a new bandwidth of consciousness. The seams on the infrastructure of society are vibrating and some of the nuts and bolts are flying off. Have no fear, however, for there are always contingency plans in heaven. Heaven? Am I hinting on an early retirement plan for some of us? No, I have a feeling that we're all going to be on this ride for the full duration of our contract to be here. So, unfasten your seatbelts, be yourself more, and enjoy the scenery! Isn't it nice, if you see it passing by from the comfort of your own neutral, amused, and compassionate space? Make sure you reserve your space!

Meanwhile, back at the SHAPE Ranch (would it be the Triple-C Ranch, branding-wise? Cosmic-Clairvoyant-Community?) Hee-haw! Guess what? The only way you can ride your horse from the appropriate social distance (to protect the horse from you, of course) is to ride levi-back. Yes, by levitating 6 feet above the horse! Or, you can ride your unicorn, they're immune from COVID-19 - and you.

Yes, here at the SHAPE Triple-C Ranch, we're working hard at herding our cats and getting all the computer, recording, and phone equipment and protocols set-up for our upcoming 2020 June Remote SHAPE Retreat! It's, of course, our first-ever remote retreat! I know it'll be great fun and full of golden growth opportunities. We'll have several Zoom get-together sessions during not only during the actual retreat Friday - Sunday (like during lunch and dinner breaks), but also on Monday (optional) for our usual post-retreat Q&A/Talk-Story/Social Get-Togethers. The actual workshop portions of the retreat will be given via MaestroConference that you're very familiar with, since we have all of our teleclasses and teleseminars through that teleconferencing service. More specific information and instructions will be forthcoming, so stay tuned!

The SHAPE Mastery Course and theme for this year has been, Living In Grace: Havingness, Creative Manifestation & the God of Your Own Heart. From the looks of it, most of you have done quite a lot of growing from the teleclasses and weekend intensive so far. Yep, Grace profoundly touches upon all aspects of your life and learning, doesn't it? Z-z-z-zzzz-t! Cosmic Shock Therapy of sorts. It loosens up all kinds of gunk, junk, and especially bunk, that you've been clutching onto for a long time. It could easily be said that this year's motto should be: Let Go and Get Going!

To help you to stay on-course and keep going, we're bringing you this SHAPE Retreat Intensive to the comforts of your own home! (Of course, a few of you may notice some of the down-sides of staying at home for a SHAPE Retreat Intensive, but, remember, it's all a learning experience.) Remember, wherever you choose to have this retreat intensive, make sure to prepare and create a sanctuary for your learning for the retreat period the best you can. Just treat Friday through at least Sunday the same way you would any other SHAPE Retreat weekend. You can allocate the time you would have spent packing, traveling, and settling into your lodging to make all your necessary preparations, so that you don't have to have any distractions during the intensive. It's YOUR time to retreat for your learning and healing.

After all, you ARE God's Masterpiece. That might require a few pumps on a big hydraulic jack to raise your havingness to accept (don't pump-up your ego, though)! Naturally, you'll get to explore what that really means. That will involve you looking to the God of your own heart and the relationship you have with God's Love. Again, an essential matter of your havingness. Often, when you long for love, you might think about it in terms of receiving love, but, loving is the expression of who you are, isn't it? When you are joyous and loving, you express your creative self. On the other hand, when you are upset, grouchy, or having a temper-tantrum, you're expressing your war with your ego. Both are creative expressions, but only one of them is an example of creatively expressing who you are.

Your bruised or roadkill-of-an ego isn't the real you and definitely not the work of God. You could say you end up becoming your ego, when you invalidate or fail to appreciate God's masterpiece. When you lovingly take care of God's masterpiece, you creatively express your true self. Prepare your havingness for this retreat. It'll be like spending an extended weekend at the Louvre museum in heaven to study one major masterpiece (while you're receiving a spa treatment!). You'll discover beautiful and powerful new facets of yourself.

As always, we'll launch this retreat intensive with our Pre-Retreat TeleSeminar, The God of Your Own Heart: Your True Inner Muse on Thursday, June 18th, have our 3-Day Retreat Intensive via MaestroConference with a few Zoom Video Socials, an optional Zoom Post-Retreat get-together on Monday, and complete the whole retreat period with the Post-Retreat TeleSeminar, The Shape of Your Love: Space Is Form, Form Is Space on Thursday, July 2nd. Woo-Hoo! We'll celebrate together whether we're sheltered-in-place or lost-in-space or joyously having our own space to be!

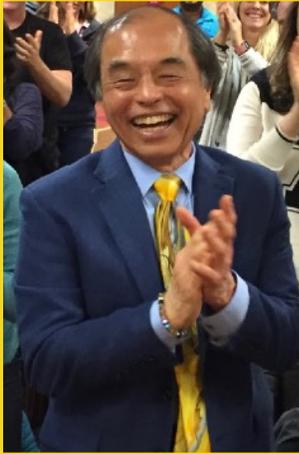

In the meantime, continue to stay grounded, be neutral, amused, and compassionate, run your energy, blow them pictures, give yourself a wonderful space to be, and carry on!

We're looking forward to seeing you remotely! 🙁

May the Light of Truth continue to shine ever more brightly upon your path and the Love of God lift your wings ever higher.

With joyful celebration, love, and laughter,

Michael
