Spiritual Practices to Share Yourself & Manifest Your Life

Sunday, May 31 1 PM - 3 PM

Dear Friends and Awakening Souls,

As challenging as it may be for many of you during this pandemic-precipitated global crisis, I hope that you are discovering that our current situation also affords us with unprecedented opportunities for inner growth. To tweak the tongue-in-cheek aphorism, “What doesn’t kill us, just makes us.....wiser.” Of course, we can only gain our wisdom through living and distilling our life experience, no matter how difficult it may be at the time.

The pandemic may be the proximate cause for everyone needing to change their ways of living and relating to one another, yet, that is only one manifestation of a more profound global transformation taking place. Today, we find ourselves at a major crossroads, both individually and collectively as a global community, where we need to make revolutionary - and evolutionary - new decisions in order to progress as a fully sustainable society. Rather than re-hashing and trying to duck-tape worn-out methodologies that no longer work, we need to create a new way of living in a more harmonious relationship with one another. We’re done editing the chapters we’ve already written. It is time to write a whole new chapter.

Every new chapter begins with a blank page. Seeing an empty page or canvas is not an invalidation or a sign of failure. It is instead a welcome opportunity for the artist to creatively express herself without limiting rules and regulations. It is a grand and wonderful experiment. And, we must approach it like a little child - bright-eyed and laughing. We need direct access to that limitless creative power that resides within our inner spirit.

With that in mind, we would like to offer you inspiration, insights, laughter, wisdom, psychic tools, and spiritual practices to help you, to not only navigate your way through the current and coming changes, but also to tap into that inner spirit creative power, so that you can blossom to your own fulfillment. To experience the true joyousness of life, you need to know yourself, share yourself, and express your creativity fully. During this time, when we still need to shelter-in-place and maintain safe physical distancing, we’ve created a brand new 4-Part Weekend TeleSeminar Event that we hope you will find uplifting and profoundly beneficial for your ability to creatively manifest the life you are meant to live.

The entire set of four teleclasses, offered via a tele-conferencing service, make for a comprehensive weekend seminar, but you are welcome to join us for any or all of them as you’d like. As always, within a week or two after the weekend, each participant will receive the link/s to a professionally mastered mp3 audio download of whichever class you attended/purchased, so that you can review the classes as much as you'd like.

Below, you'll find the individual titles and a brief description for each of the teleclasses. We invite you to join us and joyously celebrate your life during this transformational time, while you learn powerful ways to create and manifest the life you'd love to live.

TELECLASS 1: Saturday, May 30 / 10 AM - 12 PM

Imagine That!

Psychic Tools to Free-Up Your Imagination

Do you remember how imaginative you were as a young child? Is your imagination just as limitless as it was back then - or did it somehow become boxed up in the basement, only to be let out during a vacation? One thing that will forever be free for the asking is your imagination. No one can take it away - ever. Unless, you imagine that they could! Your ability to imagine is that powerful. If that's true, how come you don't seem to use it much more to your full advantage?

In this illuminating and delightful teleclass, we'll look at your imagination and your amazing ability to imagine - anything - in a new way. You will learn to free that part of your imagination that's been a hostage to all sorts of invalidation that may have prompted you to imagine that you didn't have as much imagination as a Stephen Spielberg, a J. K. Rowling - or a precocious 2-year old. Of course, you'll gain several simple, but powerful psychic tools to help you to continue to do that on your own. Freeing up your imagination is the first step to accessing the true power of your creative spirit-self!

TELECLASS 2: Saturday, May 30 / 1 PM - 3 PM

Creating From Love, Not Lack

How to Transform Your Wanting to Having & Giving

Most people try to create, when they want something. I want to paint a masterpiece. I want to write a book. I want to teach. I want to sing. I want a new house. Yet, creating from desire is creating from lack. And, the nature of creativity is that the energy and considerations from which you create will become part of the creation. If you create from lack, lack will be intrinsic to your creation. You may succeed in manifesting what you wanted, only to discover that something else was lacking in the final product.

When you create from love, however, whatever you end up manifesting will have your loving within it. Even if the end result turns up not exactly what you expected, you'd be happy with it. So, when you are in the process of creating not only different things in your life you might need, but also different aspects of your life, it is supremely important for you to do so out of loving, rather than out of wanting.

How do you go about doing that - especially when you are needing to create a new job or a new relationship or desperate to replace your old clunker of a car? How do you transform your wanting and needing to having, loving, and giving? We'll be happy to get you started on that path in this illuminating teleclass! You'll learn the truth about desire and what you want. As the saying goes, Truth shall set you free. You will also learn psychic tools and practices that you can use everyday to convert what you wanted into what you have to give. Once you get the hang of all of this, you will be on your way to creating a whole new kind of life for yourself. Not only that, you'll start to see yourself in a new light.

TELECLASS 3: Sunday, May 31 / 10 AM - 12 PM

Don't Wait, Just Create Your Solution Psychic Tools to Wake-Up Your Inner Creative Power

One of the great things that this pandemic has brought to the forefront of many people's consciousness is that even tried-and-true solutions often don't work in new situations. You might have noticed, too, that what worked wonders for your friend may not work for you. Or even something that worked for you in the past, at times, may not work for you now in the same way. In a sense, as we all evolve to a higher state of awareness and beingness, one-size-fits-all answers usually don't fit us anymore.

Rather than spending an inordinate amount of time and energy trying to find established solutions for your situation or condition, don't wait - just create your own new solution. After all, you know best what it is that you are looking for. Of course, many of us tend to overlook the simple, especially when we assume the problem is difficult to solve. So, how do you create your own new solution?

That's what this teleclass is about. In this enlightening, fun, and practical class, you'll learn simple, but effective psychic tools that you can apply everyday in your life, to access your inner creative power and create what it is that you really need for the situation, rather than try to buy individual little parts and glue them together. You'll learn about the simplicity of spirit, which is exactly what makes it so powerfully creative. Once you learn to practice creating this way, you won't waste your time worrying about much. You'll be creating your solutions!

TELECLASS 4: Sunday, May 31 / 1 PM - 3 PM

Spiritual Practices to Share Yourself & Manifest Your Life

Ever find yourself knowing what to do and how to do it, yet, you can't seem to do it? That's quite common, especially amongst awakening souls advancing along their path. Once you learn to access your inner creative power and get the ball rolling to creating all of your solutions in life, it's time to share more of who you truly are in the world and fully manifest the life you are meant to live. That's an on-going process. That means you have to do it everyday. That's when all kinds of challenges crop up in your life that seem to take precedence and you forget about creating and sharing the bounty of your creativity.

It's not too unlike a baby becoming a toddler. The baby takes a couple of steps and delights in success - and then falls and then gets back up to take a step or two or even three! Then, invariably the baby falls again. That's how we eventually learn to walk consistently and confidently. Spiritual learning and growth is like that as well. Lots and lots of do-overs! But, in each do-over, we learn something new.

So, in this powerful and fun class, you'll learn the psychic tools and regular spiritual practices you can apply in your everyday life to help you not only get to know your true self more, but also to be able to share more of your inner self with others and the world. It's what we call Living The Miracle - living each day in this world as the spirit that you are. Every step of the way is miraculous. And, the more you share of yourself, the more miraculous your life becomes. You'll learn about the ongoing process of creating, letting go, preparing a space, and welcoming in your manifestation. You'll also learn about what often limits your creative process, slowing it down, and what you can do to keep on course to manifest your life of marvelous miracles.
