Your Mediumship & Out-of-Body Experience:

Getting to Know Yourself as Spirit

We all have out-of-body experiences. In fact, we have them everyday! It's just that some of us are aware of them when we experience them, while others of us are not.

You go out of your body every night, when you go to sleep and return to your body consciousness, when you awaken. You are having an out-of-body experience, when you are "somewhere else" and not present here and now. In fact, you may even be accident-prone, if you are out of your body and not paying attention to what you are doing with your body. If you've ever felt like you were floating above your body, you were out of your body.

Of course, when you hear of people talking about their out-of-body experiences, you may hear them describe vivid, dramatic experiences of everything ranging from flying over houses and traveling to the far reaches of the universe to visiting incredible celestial realms or communicating with angels and great beings of light. Yes, those are out-of-body experiences as well. Being out of your body means that you are having experiences that are not necessarily related to your body perceptions of this world. You are experiencing life as your spirit self.

Having out-of-body experiences may not seem to be the norm, because most people do not retain their consciousness of their experiences. It's a bit like people not remembering their dreams they had while sleeping, when they wake up in the morning. Most of us had experiences of knowing that we had a vivid dream, while we were sleeping, but we couldn't remember exactly what we dreamt, when we awoken. It's not that we weren't out of our bodies experiencing as spirit, but it's that we don't seem to be aware of it, when we come back to the body.

Mediumship is the psychic or soul ability with which you can directly experience spirit - both in and out of the body consciousness. It is an essential ability that you as a soul needs to develop and begin to master as you progress on your spiritual path. Becoming conscious of out-of-body experiences is one aspect of developing your mediumship ability and beginning to realize that you are, in truth, spirit and not a body.

In this fascinating and illuminating evening workshop in Basel, world-renown spiritual teacher, clairvoyant visionary, award-winning author, and radio show host, Michael J Tamura, will teach you about the true nature of your mediumship abilities and your in- and out-of-body experiences. He will help you experience yourself as the spirit that you are and show you how you can develop your awareness of being spirit incarnated in a body. He will also offer you simple, but powerful psychic tools that you can use in your daily life to help you develop your mediumship ability and awareness of being in and out of your body consciousness. Michael will give you a taste of how joyful living life in this world can be for you as a soul.
