Spiritual Practices to Free Yourself from Guilt and Blame

Sunday, May 3 1 PM - 3 PM

Dear Friends and Awakening Souls,

I pray that you are well and celebrating life, even during these challenging times. Or, I'd like to say, especially, during these challenging times. Yes, we are living in the age when ancient prophecies are coming to fruition. And, more than ever before, we need to celebrate life here on earth, regardless of current conditions, if we are to access our true life support. Sometimes, life gives us ice cream and, at other times, celery sticks. Either way, I am grateful: one delights me, the other keeps me healthy. Over all these decades of living and learning, I've discovered that God's Grace inevitably gives me what I need most at the time - even, if I protested, at first.

As we each continue to dance with life, in our own way, to the bellicose music of a pandemic and the global upheaval it has provoked, we are given yet greater opportunities to fulfill the purpose for which we are incarnated. Although the trials and tribulations we are all experiencing are far from being laughing matters, life beckons us to rejoice and celebrate life anyway, if we hope to reach greener pastures.

Laughter can be contagious and it's one powerful contagion that we all need to spread. The others are kindness and compassion. It is imperative that we stop exposing more people to deadly viruses, but it is even more important that we expose everyone to the true source of immunity: The Limitless and Eternal Light of Awareness and Radiance of Love. We are, each and everyone of us, the light of the world. I-Mm-Unity!

With the current lockdown, we had to cancel our usual Los Angeles/Calabasas in-person Seminar Weekend on May 2nd and 3rd. So, we came up with a new plan to joyously celebrate life, amidst personal and global challenges, and to offer inspiration, insights, laughter, wisdom, psychic tools, and spiritual practices to help you, to not only navigate your way through these times, but also, to heal yourself and grow exponentially. We've created what we hope you will find to be an illuminating and revitalizing set of four 2-hour teleclasses we'll teach over that weekend via a teleconferencing service. The entire set of four teleclasses will make for a comprehensive weekend seminar, but you are welcomed to join us for any or all of them as you'd like. As always, within a week or two of the weekend, each participant will receive the link/s to a professionally mastered mp3 audio download of whichever class you attended/purchased so that you can review the classes as much as you'd like.

Below, you'll find the individual titles and a brief description for each of the teleclasses. We invite you to join us to joyously celebrate life amidst personal and global challenges, while you learn powerful ways you can become part of the solution, rather than end up perpetuating the problem, whatever it may be.

TELECLASS 1: Saturday, May 2 / 10 AM - 12 PM

Look At The Solution, Stop Staring at the Problem

Psychic Tools to Access Your Inner Spirit and Creative Power

When you face difficulties and problematic situations in your life, you might tend to get stuck on what you think the problem is. Rather than looking at the solution, you might stare at the problem. Yet, you cannot begin to solve the problem or bring about resolution to the conflict, until you let go of the problem and are looking clearly at the solution. Whenever you are experiencing a problem, it's because you don't know the solution to it yet. So, you tend to look at the problem in search of the solution. But, the solution is always in the solution and not in the problem. If you don't already have the solution, how do you know what and where to look for it? What if your solution is yet-to-be created? Then, you need to look to where you create anything - inside your own beingness that you call spirit. That is where you can access your true creative power.

In this fascinating teleclass, you'll learn new ways of approaching whatever is troubling you in life and the world around you. You'll gain insights into what you need and what you can do to create a new solution to whatever is not working well in your life. Rather than running around everywhere and to everyone in search of the right answer and a possible solution to a problem, why not learn to get started correctly in creating your own solution? Of course, you'll gain several simple, but powerful psychic tools to help you do that!

TELECLASS 2: Saturday, May 2 / 1 PM - 3 PM

Karmic Relief

Spiritual Practices to Free Yourself from Guilt and Blame

When the whole world seems to go topsy-turvy, what do you need? You need Karmic Relief! Laugh first, take charge, then, ask yourself the really important question: What do you need to learn from all of this? Because, as you well know by now, what goes around, comes around. You can take the long road through hell and back or stop isolating yourself and ride-share on the express lane to heaven. Yes, all karmic cycles lead to.....forgiveness. No matter how upset you are, how unfair you might think your life situation is, how uncaring some people could be, or how much you are blaming yourself for making a mess out of your life, sooner or later, you have to ask yourself how much longer you wish to suffer. If you are sane like most people, you'd snap to and answer, "Not a moment longer!"

What does it take for you to free yourself from whatever suffering you are experiencing? How do you undo what is bringing about the suffering in your life? At first, you might assume that the answers to such questions are complicated and hard to come by. After all, if it were so simple, everyone would have stopped suffering already. Right? Not really, because wanting to stop suffering is different than freeing yourself from suffering. You can want it all you want, but that's not going to free you up from however you are suffering. To free yourself up from suffering, you have to wake yourself up from the nightmare you've fallen asleep in. And, if you've deeply examined nightmares you've had while sleeping, you might have discovered that they all have something to do with unconscious guilt and blame.

In this powerful and fun class, you'll learn the psychic tools and regular spiritual practices you can apply in your everyday life to help you free yourself more and more from any unconscious guilt and blame you hold in your mind. It's easy to deal with whatever you are already aware of. It's the stuff that you aren't aware of that you're holding in your mind that limits you. Learn some Karmic Relief and free yourself from them!
