Dear Friends and Awakening Souls,

We are definitely living in the time of the Great Transformation. And, what a time it has been so far! No one remains untouched, and profoundly so, through all that has transpired in this world over the past year or more. No matter what is going on in our lives and in the world we're living in, to quote the age-old professional entertainers' ethos, "The show must go on!" How are you doing as you navigate your life through the morass of information—and misinformation—overload and all the conflicting views bombarding you every time you need to make a major life decision? (Or even to choose what would be healthier to eat for breakfast!)

Making any big change comes with uncertainties. Global awakening and the ensuing transformation bring about global uncertainties. How do you find clarity in your personal life, when the world around you is undergoing a massive remodeling project and becomes a construction zone? Please excuse all the dust and noise. We apologize for any inconvenience you may experience during your stay.

First and foremost, what gives us direction and meaning in our lives is always purpose. Without a clear sense of purpose, we're lost. Purpose is our GPS and without it we won't know which way to go in life. Fulfillment of our true purpose is our ultimate destination and is what gives us clarity of direction. When we know our purpose, we can also make regular course corrections along our path, much like a sailor might by knowing the ship's position and heading in relationship to the North Star.

Your true purpose is already within you. It has been within your own being, even before you were born. You just have to find it inside of who you are. In order to do that, you need to get to know your inner soul or psychic self. And, just like you would get to know someone most completely when you care for that person for the long haul, you would get to know yourself fully as you care for your own inner psychic self. And, that inner psychic self-care cannot be given through the administration of vitamins and nutritional supplements. It requires your clairvoyant vision, creative inspiration, and communication as the spirit that you are.

You can joyfully live your true purpose for being here in this world and navigate your life through these turbulent times of global awakening and great changes, if you begin to learn how to take care of your psychic self, access your creative inspiration, and develop your clairvoyant vision to see where you are headed. The great news is that you don't have to do it all overnight. It's that you just have to do a little every day.

We welcome you to join us for this special weekend of exploration, discovery, growing, and healing. Even at a physical distance, we can all get together as a group of kindred, loving souls on the path of awakening through four illuminating, fun, and transformative teleclasses and a bonus Zoom Q&A, Talk-Story & Social on Saturday, April 24th and Sunday, April 25th. Come learn, laugh, and love with us!

You can register for any or all of the teleclasses and all who participate in at least one of the teleclasses during this weekend event will be able to join us for our ever-popular bonus post-class Q&A, Talk-Story and Social via Zoom on Sunday. For all the details, check our April events calendar at: michaeltamura.com or you can call our office to sign-up at: 530-926-2650

May the Light of Truth illuminate Your Path that you may know the Joy of Heaven here on Earth!

With gratitude, love, and celebration,

Michael
