Dear Friends and Awakening Souls,

Have you ever wondered where you were going in your life? Life often seems like a journey of some kind, doesn't it? That's because it seems to unfold in a linear sequence of events and experiences. We might experience it as if we're traveling, going from here to there. At times we may have a plan and know exactly where we are headed to on the next leg of our life's journey. At other times, however, we may be rather clueless as to where we are going and whether we will even know when we get to our destination. It's rather comforting to hear that perhaps the destination isn't the most important part of our trip, but that the journey along the way is at least as important, if not even more so. In that case, perhaps we'll decide to stop and smell the roses along the way.

Life seems to unfold in front of us each day, because in Spirit life is undivided, limitless, and eternal. What you create in an instant in Spirit you manifest in this world in a seemingly linear sequence of events and experiences over time and space. This is how you experience your eternal never-changing limitless life of spirit as an ever-changing journey of learning and growth in this world as a human being. To see where you are going in your lifetime here, you have to look at where you started. None of you started your journey from this world, so you came from somewhere else. The exploration to discover your origin is the purpose for clairvoyance, mediumship, and creativity. That journey of discovery is what your spiritual path is.

Your innate psychic abilities of clairvoyance, mediumship, and creativity are essential tools for you as a soul to find your way back to your true home. The parable of the prodigal son in the New Testament is the story of every human soul who gets drawn into the world in search of fulfillment and happiness. Yet, sooner or later, each soul realizes that true everlasting happiness is not to be found in the world. Where else can that lonely and desperate soul find such fulfillment? The soul has exhausted all options and makes the choice to return home. But will a prodigal be accepted back at home, much less welcomed? That soul must find its way home using its ability to see the truth beyond prior beliefs, assumptions, and judgments as its compass and its willingness to forgive itself and others of such illusions as its mode of transport.

To help you learn the essential psychic tools needed for your soul journey home, their purpose, use, and application in your life, and how to make them an integral part of your everyday living, we are offering you our brand new remote learning weekend event, WHERE ARE YOU GOING? Your Clairvoyance, Mediumship & Creativity On Your Spiritual Path.

On Saturday, August 14th and Sunday, August 15th we will teach four 2-hour teleclasses plus our ever-popular bonus post-class Zoom Q&A, Talk-Story & Social.

- ◆ In the first Saturday teleclass, you'll learn that where you look and what you look at is where you end up going. So we'll teach you to use your clairvoyance to navigate your life and spiritual journey safely and correctly.

- ◆ In the second Saturday teleclass, we'll have fun looking at what might go "bump" along your path home. You'll learn what your mediumship ability has to do with your spiritual path and how to use it to advance yourself homeward.

- ◆ Then on Sunday, in the first teleclass, you'll learn how using your clairvoyance and seeing the truth of your experience naturally leads you to forgiveness, healing, and freedom. You'll learn about the true nature of awareness, its power of healing, and what it means to move on in your life.

- ◆ In the fourth and final teleclass of the weekend, you'll learn to integrate your clairvoyance and mediumship into your everyday living so that you could live as the free creative being that you are and be the light of the world.

You can register for any or all of the teleclasses and anyone who participates in at least one of the teleclasses during this weekend event will be able to join us for our fun and profound bonus post-class Q&A, Talk-Story and Social via Zoom on Sunday following the last teleclass.

It is more important now than ever for souls on their homeward journey to wake-up to their innate clairvoyance, mediumship, and spirit creativity and to integrate them in their daily lives. It's time to make the time and space to be the spirit that you are in this world so you can be free to go home. And that is a caravan worth being part of. We welcome you to join us in this great adventure!

May the Light of Truth shine ever more brightly upon you and Peace be with you every step of your way.

With gratitude, love, and celebration of Life,

Michael
