Dear Friends and Awakening Souls,

The first crisp chill of Winter dropped in for a quick visit early this morning, though just an opening act to a now gorgeous sun-soaked Autumn day. Flocks of late-migrating birds gather in nearby ancient blue oaks singing their farewell arias. On such a day as this, it isn't hard to be grateful for and rejoice in the celebration of life. Life IS the celebration. When we celebrate any occasion, we are merely joining in on its eternal festivities.

As we prepare ourselves to welcome Mother Nature's winter season, many of us may also turn our attention inward toward our spiritual life. Of course, in America, the approach of Thanksgiving Day serves as a reminder for us to be grateful for all of life. Yet, can we be grateful for life if we do not appreciate what life is and what gives us life? So, our attention moves toward the coming of the Holy Days.

The true Holy Days are the times set aside from our daily routines to celebrate Spirit and the Source of All Life and All That Is. Yet, especially during times of affluence, all the attention on the means of celebration often eclipses what we are commemorating and for what purpose. If we were to lose sight of our purpose for rejoicing, our ignorance would then obscure the brilliance that makes all that glitters shine in our lives. Naturally, if that were to happen, joy could not sparkle in our lives.

As many begin their preparations for Christmas and all the Holy Days, we offer a weekend event to appreciate and illuminate the Source of Life and Life itself. We do this each year to help restore the “Holy” in the holidays—and in every day. For our Holy Days weekend event this year, the overall theme will be, Celebrating The Christ Within: Reading The Road Map to Living Your Joy. Not only did the Christ proclaim, “I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life”, He demonstrated all the steps needed for anyone to live the Way, the Truth, and the Life. By learning to see, appreciate, and celebrate the Christ within you, you can read the road map that leads you to fully living that totality of life that is the Christ.

This special weekend of learning about and celebrating your inner life will comprise 4 TeleClasses plus our popular Post-Class Bonus Zoom Q&A, Talk-Story & Social. Anyone who attends at least one of our teleclasses during this weekend will be welcome to participate in the Post-Class Bonus Zoom Session. Each of the four teleclasses will address an essential step along the way of The Christ to living the joy of your soul fulfillment.

First Seek That Which Gives Everything
Your Key to Abundance, Success & Fulfillment

* Saturday, December 4 *

9 AM - 11 AM Pacific / 12 PM - 2 PM Eastern / 6 PM - 8 PM Central European

But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. - Matthew 6:33

Whenever you seek anything, you are seeking from some source of abundance, at least for whatever you are seeking. You are also seeking some fulfillment that you hope for, if you are successful in attaining or accomplishing what you seek. So, how can you hope for the best outcome for your search if you didn't first seek the source of whatever you are looking for? You could have the biggest bucket of all looking to fill it full of water, but if you do not put it under a water faucet or another source of water, there isn't much likelihood that it would fill up with water. That applies to all of life. Why not learn to always first seek that which gives you everything before you begin your search for anything? In this class, you'll learn just how you can do that to help you tap into the limitless abundance of life. You will also learn simple, but powerful psychic tools and practices that you can apply every day to have success and fulfillment in whatever you do.

Purifying Your Heart

Seeing Your Way Clearly with the Eye of Spirit

* Saturday, December 4 *

12 PM - 2 PM Pacific / 3 PM - 5 PM Eastern / 9 PM - 11 PM Central European

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God. - Matthew 5:8

How do you see God? The instructions are explicit when you read the road map of the Christ. You just need to be “pure in your heart”. But what does that mean? The heart is the center and essence of who you are. No matter what you do to or with your physical heart, you won’t be able to purify your essence. You can only do that by emptying your mind of all artificial divisions and divisive thoughts and feelings. How would that allow you to see God? Foremost, God is limitless and eternal. That means God is absolutely undivided. You need to be undivided from who you are as spirit to see God. As you release the divisiveness in yourself, you will also see yourself and your way to God more clearly. That is your clairvoyance. That sight, however, is not of the body’s sight through its two physical eyes. We can only see God with the undivided Eye of Spirit. That path is the development of your clairvoyance. In this class, you’ll learn not only the psychic tools and practices that will help you see more with the Eye of Spirit and develop your innate clairvoyance, but you will also learn to purify your heart of the many artificial divisions that you have created within yourself. Learn to see your way clearly throughout the rest of your life.

Removing the Log in Your Own Eye

The Secret to Healing Yourself in Every Relationship

* Sunday, December 5 *

9 AM - 11 AM Pacific / 12 PM - 2 PM Eastern / 6 PM - 8 PM Central European

First, take the log out of your own eye, then you will be able to see clearly to take the speck out of your brother’s eye. - Matthew 7:5

You were born to help with the healing of those in this world and, through that, the healing of the world. You have been on the path of healing even prior to coming into this lifetime. Whether you consider yourself a trained healer or practice a certain method of healing, as a soul, you are a healer already. Yet, just because you are a natural healer, it doesn't mean you will be fully successful or effective in your healing without correct information, practices, and wise guidance. One of the biggest stumbling blocks for almost every healer is not knowing how entangled he or she gets in other people's problems and suffering. Some souls who are here on earth to be healers don't even get started on their true path because of that. Others may have more certainty in themselves as healers and set out to help others in their healing processes, but seem to get stuck in what may seem to be their own problems and are, instead, waylaid. Still others have persevered, trained as healers, and established their professional practices, but struggle daily with challenging patients and discover they need to learn how to better take care of themselves to stay well. This class will help you learn the single most important element in healing yourself as you relate to anyone else. What makes any relationship trying for you is not the person you are relating to. Rather, it is the reaction in your own mind to the other person that challenges you. In this class, you will learn to remove that big log of reaction in your own eye before you try to help the other person with the speck in their eye. Without the log in you, you won't have a problem with the speck in the other. This extraordinary psychic tool and practice will help you heal yourself in every relationship.

Loving Your Neighbor as Your Self

Your Toll-Free Expressway To God

✧ Sunday, December 5 ✧

12 PM - 2 PM Pacific / 3 PM - 5 PM Eastern / 9 PM - 11 PM Central European

Love your neighbor as yourself. - Matthew 22:39

Everyone is on the path to God. Yet, each soul has free will, so each one can go along the path in a countless diversity of ways. Some choose to zip along in a straight line, while others choose to dilly and dally along the way. Some find that detours are exciting and fun, whereas others avoid them. This class is for any soul who is interested in returning to its rightful divine home as quickly as possible while enjoying all the scenery and experiences along the way. If you wish to take the toll-free but enjoyable and scenic expressway to God, this class is for you. In this class, you'll find out what it means to "love your neighbor as yourself" and what makes that so all-important on your path to God. You'll also learn why, if you learn to love your neighbor as yourself, your path becomes not only the fastest route, but toll-free as well. If that's not enough incentive to take this route, here's one more: It's also the most enjoyable!

As a bonus gift for participating in any of the teleclasses during this weekend event, we'll host a Post-Class Zoom session to share class experiences and we'll answer questions about what you learned in the classes. We've found that class participants learn so much and go through so many transformative experiences that it's helpful to have a little time after the classes to relax, enjoy everyone's company, and integrate what you learned a bit before you rush back into your daily world.

We're looking forward to seeing you at this special remote weekend event!

With gratitude, love, and celebration,

Michael
