Dear Friends and Awakening Souls,

We've kick-started 2021. We've re-set our energy and vision, both personally and globally. Now what? It's time to imagine and create amazing new ways to move forward. Are you ready to do that? Of course you are! What's more, the universe is ready for you to do that as no other time in history. And, when the universe is raring for you to create something wonderful and new, the psychic being that you are, responds—whether you think you're up to the task or not! So, don't hang on for your dear life—trust yourself, let go, and take a leap with your imagination. Enjoy your life fully, no matter the circumstances. Be willing to be joyfully surprised.

When everything lines up cosmically for you to take ownership of your imagination, creative power, and soul expression in this world, it gives you the stage for you to shine your light even more. That stage could be in your family, neighborhood, or your work community. It could be in your social circle of friends and acquaintances. It could be a global stage. Or most likely some combination of them. You might have a bit of trepidation of being in the spotlight in some way, but, the question isn't whether you'll be more in the spotlight. The truth is that you ARE the spotlight. Whether you like it or not, you can't fight the truth and win. So, don't be a sore loser. Remember, if you can't beat 'em, join 'em! (After all, if you join truth, it'll free you.)

What's all this waking up and stepping up in creativity happening in the universe doing to everyone? A major effect this cosmic ramping up has on everyone is that it powers-up everyone's innate creativity, which in turns turns-up their mediumship ability. Mediumship, being the ability, space, and energy through which we access our inner spirit creative power, turns on more when we step up our creative expression. And, what does that look like when everyone's mediumship steps up?

As much as the concept of mediumship has hit the mainstream through the dedicated work of pioneering mediums, psychics, and intuitives in the world and the media in more recent years, the majority of people in the world still have a long way to go to having even an adequate working understanding of their own mediumship and how it affects them every day. In 2020, while most people were focused on the seeming chaos generated by the corona virus pandemic and resultant global economic and political panic, mediumship on an individual and collective level became a global psychic wildfire. If you look clairvoyantly at all the over-the-top craziness and violence in the world and people just mentally and emotionally bouncing off the walls, you'll see just how much of that was being played out through the avenue of everyone's mediumship abilities.

As you know, everything is energy and everything starts on a subtle energy level before it can manifest into physical form. So, in a sense, by the time people are going nuts in the world, it's too late. If, however, you learn to be aware of and manage your own mediumship space, energy, and ability, you will be able to relate to everyone else's mediumship and even offer them a positive healing presence that will help in their own development. At the least, you will be able to make sense of what's underlying the sudden and unexpected switch in your friend, co-worker, or even family member from a caring Dr. Jekyll, who you know, into a mean or abusive Mr. or Ms. Hyde, who seems a complete stranger. Of course, there are many degrees of how out-of-kilter a person can go, when they are not aware of how to deal with their own mediumship, from being a bit spaced-out or saying something from left field to having the full-blown take-over by another being or energy.

How does your mediumship as well as that of others around you affect your ability to creatively express yourself and your inner vision you see in this life? As you wake up more to the spirit that you are and to the truth, there comes a time when you have to learn to manage your mediumship. It becomes essential for you to be able to have a good and productive life in which you can more fully express your profound creativity as a soul and fulfill your purpose in this world.

To help you become more aware of and develop your mediumship, create your own space for it, and learn how to respond to others' mediumship in the world, we are offering you our brand new remote learning weekend event, Your Mediumship, Clairvoyance & The Global Awakening. On Saturday, February 27th and Sunday, February 28th we will teach four 2-hour teleclasses plus our bonus post-class Zoom Q&A, Talk-Story & Social. In the Saturday teleclasses, you'll learn to manage both your own mediumship, as well as that of others in your life during this global awakening, and to become more aware of your mediumship and clairvoyant abilities and how they relate to your out-of-body experience. On Sunday, you'll learn what your mediumship has to do with how your relationships play out for you and others along with what you can do about that. Then, you'll learn what it means to be the clairvoyant medium and healer that you are in this world at this time and how you can enjoy your life no matter how others may react to you as you help wake up the world. You can register for any or all of the teleclasses and all who participate in at least one of the teleclasses during this weekend event will be able to join us for our ever-popular bonus post-class Q&A, Talk-Story and Social via Zoom on Sunday.

You're off to a great start in 2021. It's time to take your next step in learning about and developing your mediumship and clairvoyance both for fulfilling your purpose and in relationship to the part you play in the global awakening. We welcome you to join us in this great adventure!

May the light of truth continue to illuminate your every step and God's Love guide you in your every choice.

With gratitude, love, and celebration of Spirit,

Michael
