Develop Your Psychic Abilities to Communicate & Creatively Express Yourself as a Soul

Liebe Freunde und erwachende Seelen,

Hello, hello, hello! I hope this letter finds each of you happy, healthy, and wise despite all the continuing turmoil in the world. Once again Spring graces us with sunshine, flowers, greenery, and the rest of Nature's variety show. Normally, Raphaele and I would be confirming our flights and hotel reservations as we prepare for our travel to Zürich. However, we're still pretty much homebound in California, compliments of the continuing challenges around COVID. We miss being in Switzerland, getting to see all our wonderful friends there, and getting to teach in my favorite city. We are, nonetheless, ever so grateful for the love and dedication of our dear friends and hosts/organizers for this online event, Wolfgang and Marianne Jaeger of Im Licht that we will get to see you and be with you all via Zoom again this May.

As you have been well aware, we are certainly in the full swing of the Great Global Awakening and Transformation. On the surface, all that appears to be happening around the world may be quite unsettling, yet the raising of human consciousness driving these changes is cause for joyous celebration. No matter how unfortunate what has happened over the past year looks to you, remind yourself that collectively it's been part of a new world preparing to rise up out of the ashes of the old. Individually, this is the time for you, who had been the captive caterpillar, to emerge out of your cocoon, free, as the magnificent butterfly. Now is the time for each of us to live the wisdom we've gained throughout our lives. The single most important ingredient in that process is your psychic communication—you communicating as the soul or psychic being you are to others as the souls that they are. Without true spirit-to-spirit communication, none of us could fulfill the purpose for which we are living in this world.

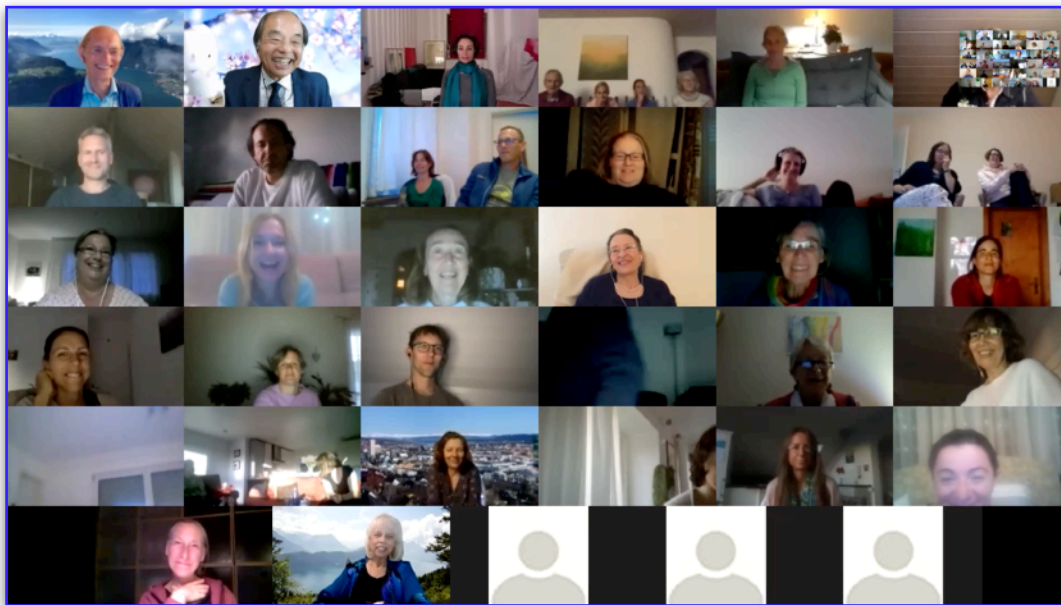

So, it is timely and most appropriate that we get to teach you online over the Pentecost Weekend, which for many souls commemorates the Holy Spirit descending upon the Apostles and other disciples following Jesus' Resurrection and Ascension. Direct experience of—and communication with—the Holy Spirit is the ultimate spirit-to-spirit communication. Through our two online events this time, I will offer you an exploration and teaching of psychic communication and prayer healing.

Psychic communication is essential in transcending the inner conflicts that bring about the experience of isolation and loneliness. Only through communicating spirit-to-spirit with one another can you realize true intimacy. Then, as you learn what prayer is and to pray as the soul that you are, you open the door inward to the limitless, unconditionally loving, joyous celebration of life that is your divine heritage.

We will begin with my 2-hour Friday Evening Online Zoom Workshop, Psychic Communication in Your Life: *What It Is, What It Does & What To Do With It To Heal Yourself. This workshop will be an illuminating introduction and preparation for our Online Zoom Weekend Seminar. In it you will learn about the true nature of your psychic or spirit-to-spirit communication, why developing your ability to communicate psychically is necessary to your continued spiritual growth and happiness, and how it plays a major role in all aspects of healing yourself. Join us in this inspirational workshop and accelerate your process of awakening.

Then, we will continue our exploration, discovery, learning, healing, and growing with our in-depth teaching event, our special Online Zoom Weekend Seminar, Psychic Communication, Prayer Healing & Living Your Most Joy-Filled Life. In this Weekend Seminar, you will learn that communicating as a soul, psychically, is essential not only for living the joy-filled life of spirit but also for fulfilling your true life purpose. You will learn that as you access more of your intuitive soul ability to communicate through all of your psychic abilities ranging from clairvoyance and mediumship to telepathy and clairsaudience, you will develop your ability to pray and bring about profound healing for yourself and others. During this extraordinary weekend, you will also gain many simple and practical, yet powerful psychic tools and daily spiritual practices to help you along your journey of awakening.

We know that both the Zoom workshop and weekend seminar will help you experience yourself more as the brilliant and limitless spirit that you are. Be sure to click on the links at the end of this letter to the descriptions and details for each of our two online events.

Even as you decide to join us for these events, you may begin experiencing shifts in your energy and consciousness long before you arrive at the actual workshop or seminar. This is a good thing - it means that you are already learning what I am teaching in spirit. In fact, some of you might even become aware when you first awaken in the morning that you may have done or learned something while you slept. Yes, I teach every night in spirit as many of you sleep. I have been doing that for almost five decades. We can learn, grow, and heal ourselves enormously in spirit, even while our bodies sleep. So, please pay some attention when you first awaken in the morning and reflect upon what you might have done or learned while your body slept. Notice, too, the inner changes that you may go through and care for yourself lovingly. I know we will have a wonderful time together via Zoom in May. Both Raphaelle and I are so looking forward to seeing all of you!

May the Light of Truth illuminate your way and the Love of God give you wings.

With gratitude, love, and joyous laughter,

Michael
