Dear Friends and Awakening Souls,

The seminar will be given in English with immediate translation in German remotely online via Zoom. The Zoom invitation link will be emailed upon your registration.

Every day, I wake up grateful that I live in this world during this historic time. I feel blessed, not because there are so many challenges facing all of us today, but because we get to take part in the extraordinary transformation unfolding before us. And what drives this global healing is humanity's awakening consciousness. Congratulations—you too are part of this great awakening!

Yes, many of the enormous challenges we all face in this world now are consequences of the major changes we are each making in our consciousness. The massive upheavals we are witnessing in the world today are some repercussions of the global healing process underfoot. Healing uncovers the underlying pain and suffering that we previously held in our mind unconsciously. Since the mind is the builder, whatever we hold in it will eventually manifest in the world. In trying to protect ourselves against our past pain and suffering in our mind, we end up resisting and holding on to that pain and suffering. The mind will then manifest that pain and suffering in our lives in this world. Yet if instead we envision the undivided limitlessness of Spirit, we bring about healing. What we are witnessing today is not that humanity is suffering more than ever, but that humanity is releasing the suffering it has collectively held within itself for millennia. How we individually and collectively respond to this will determine whether we resolve the problems we face or continue to perpetuate them.

Living daily through this time of intense healing—both personal and global—is for each of you the path of awakening. Whether you are experiencing the great joys and celebrations of life or dealing with its major difficulties, life gives you the opportunities to awaken to the eternal truth and your ultimate freedom. All you have to do is choose how you wish to respond every step of your way: True to your inner being and lovingly or by hiding your light and resisting. One way will guide you to your full joyous awakening, while the other will offer more isolation and unhappiness.

Wouldn't you rather choose the path that will lead you to your everlasting happiness and freedom? Of course you would! So, for our next 3-Day Remote Online "Retreat" Seminar, I will teach about how your compassion, clairvoyance, and creative expression make up the three essential tools that will help you advance successfully along your path of awakening. We'll explore what the path of awakening is and what you need most to navigate through the various challenges you may encounter along the way. You'll discover that even when the world presents seemingly unsurmountable problems, if you stay on your path, you will learn to experience the joy of life regardless of what happens. You will learn to cultivate your compassion to release past suffering, develop your clairvoyance to see truth more clearly and forgive the lies in your mind, and you will learn to express more of your true soul creativity. Are you ready to wake up to more freedom and joy?

Grüezi Mitenand!

Once again, huge thanks to our dear friends, Wolfgang and Marianne Jaeger of Im Licht, we will all be able to be together remotely online for this retreat that was originally scheduled over the same 3-day weekend: Saturday, October 9 - Monday, October 11. Although we could not be together in-person at Antoniohaus in beautiful Morschach this time, we will be together via Zoom, wherever you may be in the world. We appreciate the technology that offers us the joy of seeing and being able to communicate with each of you in the little squares on our computer screens. Also, as much as we love being with all of you at Antoniohaus, we have found that teaching remotely via Zoom can actually help you further your ability to communicate spirit-to-spirit more and experience more of what I am teaching. Such is the way with Spirit. When it seems we have lost something wonderful, we always discover that we have gained something just as magnificent, or even more so.

Remember that once you commit to joining us for this remote retreat seminar, you may start experiencing some shifts in your energy and awareness. This is a good thing. It means that you are already learning what I am teaching you in spirit.

When you first awaken in the morning, you may even sense that you have done or learned something while you slept. If so, good for you! I teach every night in spirit as many of you sleep. I have been doing that since I was growing up as a child. We as spirit can accomplish an enormous amount of learning, growing, and healing while our bodies are sleeping. So, please remind yourself when you first awaken to be aware. Spend a moment or two to reflect upon what you might have done or learned while your body slept. Notice, too, the changes that you are going through and care for yourself lovingly. I know we will have a wonderful time together via Zoom soon. Both Raphaele and I are so looking forward to seeing all of you—both on the computer screen and in spirit!

May you walk in the Light of Truth guided by the Love of God.

With gratitude, love, and joyous celebration and laughter,

Michael
