Dear Friends and Awakening Souls,

The seminar will be given in English with immediate translation in German remotely online via Zoom. The Zoom invitation link will be emailed upon your registration.

Here's a great big 'grüezi' from very sunny—and hot (40 degrees Celsius!)—Roseville, California. We wished we could be with all of you this time in Morschach, Switzerland, but we're grateful that we'll get to be with you again via Zoom for this 3-day remote “retreat” seminar soon! Are you ready?

I've observed throughout the past couple of years, especially with so many people around the world dealing with enormous challenges, both personal and global, that many of you are struggling to figure out what to do. Some of you may wonder what to do about certain situations in your daily life, while others of you may have felt like you've been hitting a brick wall of not knowing how to improve overall conditions in your life or in the world. I've seen people everywhere getting stuck, not knowing what to do about something.

I realized a long time ago that in living our daily life, we encounter essentially two kinds of experiences: those we immediately know what to do with or about and those we don't. None of us seem to ever really have any trouble dealing with the experiences in our lives that we already know what to do about or how to respond to. And thankfully, for most of us, those are our normal everyday experiences. So the only experiences we have in our day-to-day lives that any of us struggle with are those experiences we encounter we don't know what to do with or about. If there were ways to more easily and effectively deal with those kinds of experiences, we'd all be better off, wouldn't we? That's what prompted me to offer you this upcoming remote intensive this autumn. It's a perfect time to explore WHAT

TO DO WHEN YOU DON'T KNOW WHAT TO DO!

Grüezi Mitenand!

When I review my life up to now, I've had so many times when I initially did not know what to do about what I was facing. Yet, here I am—a bit weathered after 69 years of living perhaps—but alive and well and raring to go! So, somehow, I must have gotten myself through all those seemingly impossible challenges, not only relatively unscathed, but always wiser and happier from the experience! Do I possess some kind of ancient secret or superhuman powers? Not at all! Whenever I encountered situations in my life that I didn't know what to do about at first, I always ultimately relied on what I intuitively knew and what I saw as true, then used my imagination to create my next step in relationship to what was going on. The wonderful thing about that is that it always worked! And, therefore, here I am.

Over the years of observing people living their lives, I discovered that many of them rarely did what I did when they encountered situations that they initially didn't know what to do about. Often, I saw them resigning to limiting themselves to avoid the situation or merely went on living by dragging along their seemingly unsolvable problem. Either way, they didn't seem happy with themselves. So, I created ways in which I could share how I used the more challenging experiences in my life to not only get through them, but even more to benefit from them rather than getting stuck or limited. This 3-day remote seminar is one of my newest offerings! I welcome you to join me on this adventure of learning to access and apply more of your innate intuitive knowingness, clairvoyance, and creative power to help you do what you need to do when you don't know what to do!

Know that it's an amazing time to further your awakening and progress on your spiritual path!

Once you commit to joining us for this remote retreat seminar, you may start experiencing some shifts in your energy and awareness. This is a good thing. It means that you are already learning what I am teaching you in spirit. When you first awaken in the morning, you may even sense that you have done or learned something while you slept. If so, good for you! I teach every night in spirit as many of you sleep. I have been doing that since I was growing up as a child. We as spirit can accomplish an enormous amount of learning, growing, and healing while our bodies are sleeping. So, please remind yourself when you first awaken to be aware. Spend a moment or two to reflect upon what you might have done or learned while your body slept. Notice, too, the changes that you are going through and care for yourself lovingly. I know we will have a wonderful time together via Zoom soon. Both Raphaele and I are so looking forward to seeing all of you—both on the computer screen and in spirit!

May the Light of Truth continue to illuminate your every step and the Love of God guide you in your every choice.

With gratitude, love, and joyous celebration,

Michael
