

January 2022

Hello SHAPE Group,

We are so excited about starting this New Year's SHAPE Clairvoyance & Trancemediumship Mastery Course, 2022! This is the pricing sheet for the course, but please do read this entire letter before moving on to looking over the options. Welcome to this year's course, Joy to the World! Creative Manifestation on Your Path to Self-Realization.

This year, logistically and price-wise is going to be somewhat similar to last year - we are still not sure when it will be safe enough for us to have in-person group gatherings, which are usually a big part of our year as you know. This year we will be giving all our classes via Zoom (instead of Maestroconference) until the time comes when we can gather together in-person. Maestroconference, by the way, is having business issues right now so we will use it only for our "open to everyone" events and we might even change those to Zoom as well. It is our hope to possibly have our first in-person event be our June SHAPE Retreat in Ashland, OR, but I am not promising it yet. I will try to give you plenty of notice one way or another (perhaps by April.) Meanwhile, we are setting up all our events on Zoom this year otherwise.

I am putting forth this price sheet, below, which is quite similar to last year's schedule and prices, with the food costs for the retreats taken off as we did last year. If, by some miracle, things get freed up (Covid-wise) and we can give one or both retreats in-person, we will have to charge you $100 to cover the food costs for the weekend, possibly a little more if it turns out to be more expensive for us to purchase because of the different way in which food has to be prepared (I have already been warned of this.) If that is the case, you will just have to take care of that with Noel when the time comes. We might have to accommodate those who might be worried about travel yet, by possibly making it available online (if we are able to give anything in-person) – but this is not a promise, of course, not yet anyway and still, we might not be able to do it, equipment-wise, but we'll see. We have to go with the flow of what is happening as time goes on, just like we did last year. We hope you are willing to be flexible, too. We are trying to keep everyone as safe as possible until such a time as it looks like we are all in the clear about this – so at this moment we are going to assume this year things could be the same as last year, until they aren't. So, if everything opens up and we need to have you pay that extra $100 or thereabouts for in-person event food (retreats only) – or however much we need to charge for each retreat's food service, we'll put a call out to see how many people would want to attend in that case – before we book any hotel.

What you will see below may look confusing, but what I have done is (for those of you especially who are new to us), we are giving a number of options on how to pay for this year's (2022) Mastery Course – one of which we hope will match your budget. If you really want to take this course and just cannot afford it at all, we can set up a deferred plan for you as long as you promise to pay us as soon as you are back on your feet (no takers, please.) Please be honest with yourself and us and do not ask for this option if you can really pay for it using one of these many options available to you. I am instructing Noel to contact us for approval of any person who asks for this option. We know budgets are tight – but we also know most of you are quite capable of creating your income in some interesting way or another – we have a lot of faith and trust in you all on this account. Remember, if this course is in alignment with your path, you will find a way or your guidance will show you the way – a good meditation will help with this – one dedicated to creating your mock-up and havingness for this.

Thank you for your consideration! We are so happy to present this year’s course which Michael has been working on since this past September and which he has spent MANY hours on between our other work.

Check it out and call Noel, our assistant, to sign up: 1(530) 926-2650 when you are ready to be a part of what I think will be one of Michael’s best years of teaching yet, truly. Oh, and Happy Beautiful New Year 2022 – let us create a great year together!

With Much Love & Many Blessings, Raphaelle Tamura
