Dear Friends and Awakening Souls,

Have you've been wanting to do something different or even do things differently than you've been doing? Whatever your objective may be, the important thing is to notice that something that's been within you is surfacing into your conscious awareness more. It's not unlike a seed that you planted in your garden a while back is starting to sprout and break through the dirt. That something within you that's starting to sprout is your inner creative life. It's your creative fire or life force getting ready for expression in your life here in the world!

Your body is not the source of that creative power or life force. That is within you, the spirit. It's within your psychic self—your soul self—that creativity resides. And your creativity has no limits in spirit. You only begin to notice the stirring of your creativity as you become ready to express the next level of your life in the world. Many people tend to first notice that initial expression of their creative power as some kind of newly ignited desire, especially in the form of wanting to do something. You might initially interpret that as wanting some kind of change in your life and experience, perhaps do something new or do what you've been doing in a different way. At first, you might think you're wanting to do something but may not know exactly what it is that you'd like to do. You might have thoughts pop up like, maybe I'll redecorate my livingroom or reorganize my office or try a new hairstyle or update my wardrobe. Or you might find yourself considering a move or change of scenery or a new career. Whatever it might be, behind it you'd find that itch, that impulse, that energy that seems to be growing from within you to do something new or different.

If you ignore that growing flame of inner creativity, not only will it continue to get bigger and more powerful, since it is your creative power, you'll most likely end up creating what you don't want in your life by default, rather than proactively creating what would help you fulfill more of your purpose for incarnating here in the first place. When you start experiencing that inner "push", you could say your creativity and a new part of your life is getting ready to be birthed!

Surprise! Perhaps, you didn't even know you were pregnant! Hahaha... And it definitely doesn't matter if you're a woman or a man because the life you are needing to birth into this world is of the undivided oneness of your inner spirit. It's neither feminine nor masculine. It's your immortal and limitless soul that is getting ready to express another aspect of your inner psychic life outwardly. It's actually a cause for joyous celebration, not for consternation, worry, anxiety, or stress, just because you might not know exactly what it is that you want or need to do. Discovering that and deciding what you'd like to do next is the really fun part. It's like being given the gift of a brand new blank canvas to paint for an artist or a carte blanche to make whatever movie you envision as a filmmaker.

So, to help you enjoy living more of your creative soul life here on earth, we decided to offer you four new Zoom classes to discover and learn important psychic tools to use to create healing in all manners of relationships and to help you create a fresh start for new opportunities, a new solution to problems and situations you may have found challenging, and to create your next steps in any endeavor in your life. Sound good? Well, you're invited to join us in all or any of the four 2-hour

Zoom classes we're offering during the weekend of Saturday, September 17th and Sunday, September 18th. Not only that, but anyone taking at least one of the classes during the weekend event can join us for our ever-popular bonus gift Zoom Q&A, Talk-Story and Social right after the last class on Sunday to top off learning about and celebrating expressing your creativity as an incarnated soul!

If you scroll down past this letter, you can read a short description of what's offered in each of the four zoom classes and the bonus Q&A. We're both looking forward to seeing you for this new set of remote classes!

May the Light of Truth continue to illuminate your path of awakening.

With gratitude, love, and joyous celebration,

Michael

A relationship is the way in which two or more people or things are connected to each other. That makes everything any of us experience in life a relationship, doesn't it? There is no time in Spirit. Therefore, for you as an immortal, timeless soul incarnated in this world, it's never too late for starting something new or different. Yet, that is never true for you because

In this class, you'll learn about what a fresh start in your life really is and how you can create such a new start regardless of your age, talents, or experience. In this fun third-eye-opening class, you'll learn about what "seeing" really means and why you have to clearly see where you are headed, if you hope to successfully reach your destination. ### TSW22-9 ZC5-Bonus Zoom Post-Class Q&A, Talk-Story & "Ice Cream" Social

After we teach all four of the Zoom classes in this weekend event, we invite anyone who participated in at least one of the Zoom classes during the weekend to join us for our fun and enlightening Q&A, Talk-Story, and Social time via Zoom. We affectionately call it our "ice cream social” because you can certainly have your favorite cup of hot tea or a scoop or two of your favored ice cream, dairy or non-dairy, to enjoy during this session. It’s an important time after the experiential psychic classes in which you go through accelerated learning and growth to have a time to relax, communicate, and enjoy the company of kindred, loving souls. It’s a time that many class participants wish to ask specific questions regarding what they learned in the classes as well as a time for several people to share a particular experience or two they had in the class. Many students may choose to simply enjoy listening to the others, but it’s a great time for everyone to start integrating in a safe space some of what they learned, before they set out back into the hub-bub of their worldly life. Whether you take all the classes or any of them, this weekend event will surely impact you deeply in expanding your awareness and living more of your soul life every day.
