Energy Work for Sharing the Joy of Life

Dear Friends and Awakening Souls,

Do you know what every relationship is based on? Communication. Every healing begins with some kind of “hello”. In fact, the single most important function of your body is to serve as your instrument for communication. As an immortal soul, you incarnated here in a world of time and space to learn to communicate. Communication is essential for you to create and to transform your life on your path to fulfilling your purpose.

When you communicate, you are creatively expressing who you are. And you creatively express yourself every moment of every day—even while you sleep—whether or not you are aware of it. You can’t help it because as spirit, you simply are. Being that you are fully creative by nature, you are always creating and being your creative self. So, you are continuously expressing your creative psychic self in this world, even when you believe you are silent, keeping a secret to yourself, or doing nothing at all. There are no secrets, no hiding. You can run, but you can’t hide—at least, not for long.

If you are creatively expressing yourself all the time anyway, you might as well become more aware of how and what you are communicating. Then, you would be able to more consciously choose how and what you communicate. After all, you are the light of the world. Isn’t it time you owned up to your function in this world? Remember, it doesn’t serve your purpose here to hide your brightness.

To help you realize your innate creative power and what you are already unconsciously expressing, and learn to communicate with awareness more of who you are in the world, we welcome you to join us for our brand new set of seven Zoom-Classes to help you Create & Transform Your Life by learning Psychic Tools for Having Great Communication. This new set of classes is part of our popular ongoing series, You Might Be More Psychic Than You Think! We welcome you to sign up for any or all of these Zoom-Classes and create and transform your communication and your life by stepping up your creative expression as the light of the world.

Please scroll down below for the individual titles and class descriptions. See you in class soon!

With enthusiasm, love, and joyous celebration of life,

Michael

Create & Transform Your Life:

Psychic Tools for Having Great Communication

10/15 Saturday 10 AM - 12 PM (PT)

ZC64 - Clean Up Your Act!

Energy Work for Detoxing Your Own Communication Space

It's time to Clean Up Your Act! But perhaps not in the way you might think. Before you can shift yourself out of a rut or transform your life in any big way, you have to examine how you have been communicating with yourself and clean up your own inner communication space. You'll find that detoxing your communication space of any non-productive and even toxic energy will do wonders for your creativity. Not only that, but it'll change your life—and relationships—for the better. It's like detoxing your body from years of eating junk food—you'll feel clean, refreshed, and much more alive. In this class, you'll learn to do psychic energy work to not only clear out your internal communication with yourself, but re-set your own inner communication space to revitalize your life and creativity. No matter what you plan to do next in your life, this will help you do it more successfully and with greater ease and enjoyment.

11/05 Saturday 10 AM - 12 PM (PT)

ZC65 - Your 'Hello' Sets Your Course:

Energy Work for Creating Purposeful Communication

"Hello." Such a simple and common word, but it's one that has the power to open the locked security doors to the greatest treasures when used correctly. Your "Hello" sets your course on whatever journey you wish to embark upon. It's your GPS that gets you headed to your desired destination. One of the factors that makes the biggest difference in whether you access the power of "hello" or not is how aware you are in saying your "hello". Are you truly aware of your purpose for saying "hello" to anyone about anything? When you learn to consciously create the space to communicate with a clear purpose, you tap into the power of the "hello" and you set your course that will take you to your destination. In this class, you'll learn to do psychic energy work to help you create that purposeful communication and get yourself going in the right direction.

12/10 Saturday 10 AM - 12 PM (PT)

ZC66 - Stop Arguing With Yourself!

Energy Work for Harmonious Self-Communication

Do you ever find yourself arguing with yourself in your head? You might be worried about a loved one, but you are conflicted about what to do. Or you might be berating yourself for having done something you shouldn't have done or having done something incorrectly, at the same time trying to justify your actions to yourself. Somehow, you're not at peace, you're divided. Do you want to stay conflicted or continue to argue with yourself? Or would you like to declare a cease-fire and get back into a harmonious relationship with yourself? If so, this class will teach you to do psychic energy work to help you bring about a much more harmonious communication with yourself and bring peace into your mind. Remember, "united we stand, divided we fall." Before you can do anything successfully, you need to be on the same page with yourself.

01/14 Saturday 10 AM - 12 PM (PT)

ZC67- Creating Opportunities For Saying 'Hello':

Energy Work for Opening Up Communication with Others

Have you ever had a time when you really wanted to talk to someone you didn't know or weren't too familiar with, but had a hard time just starting a conversation? Sometimes, it may seem hard to just walk up to a stranger and say, "Hello". After all, what do you say after that initial "hello"? Plus, what if the person isn't interested in talking with you? What if they think you're some kind of creep or stalker? Or you may not even gotten yourself to a place where you would find anyone interesting to you to communicate with? You're definitely not alone in that kind of experience, but what are people missing when they fail to connect or lose that opportunity to make a new friend? What they didn't do was to create the opportunity for them to say "hello". When you create ample opportunities for saying "hello", those opportunities not only show up for you, you'll find it easy to open that door and say the first "hello" to anyone. In this class, you'll learn to create those opportunities and be ready to say "hello" when those opportunities show up in front of you. You'll also learn invaluable tools to help you do psychic energy work to create and open up the space to communicate with others.

02/04 Saturday 10 AM - 12 PM (PT)

ZC68 - Clearing Your Psychic Throat:

Energy Work for Getting Yourself Heard

Ahem! Sometimes you might find yourself clearing your throat before you speak. Why do you do that? Perhaps, you had a little irritation in your throat or you merely wanted to make sure that your voice wouldn't crack when you spoke. Or you may simply have been a bit nervous to talk. You might have been a bit concerned of being rejected, ignored, or not heard. A similar thing happens even more often on the inner levels of your communication. In fact, just like your vocal cords and physical vocal mechanisms that help you talk out loud are in your throat area, a big part of your subtle energetic mechanisms for your psychic communication are located in your throat area. So, if you clear your psychic "throat", you'll find that you'll not only have an easier time communicating, but even more than that find that others hear you more. In this class, you'll learn to clear your psychic throat and do energy work to get yourself heard more by those you wish to communicate with.

03/04 Saturday 10 AM - 12 PM (PT)

ZC69 - Communication For Getting Things Done:

Energy Work for Successful Collaboration

Getting anything done, especially getting done effectively and successfully, requires good communication. Of course, that begins right at home with yourself. Even if you are the only one doing the job or the project, you need to be in good communication with yourself to get it done well and in a timely manner. That becomes even more essential when you are working as part of a partnership or team. It takes great communication with everyone involved to get things done successfully. In this class, you'll learn about communicating for those times you need to get things done and get them done well. You'll also learn psychic tools to do energy work to cultivate a successful and enjoyable collaboration with others. After all, if you separate work and enjoyment, what kind of work will you get done?

04/01 Saturday 10 AM - 12 PM (PT)

ZC70 - Socializing For Fun Communication:

Energy Work for Sharing the Joy of Life

Do you ever communicate with others just for fun? Of course you do! In fact, isn't that one of your favorite kinds of communication? It may not take much imagination to picture yourself sitting around the dining table with a group of good friends laughing and communicating over a wonderful meal. Who cares what you're all communicating about, right? Yet, who says all communication can't be just as enjoyable? In fact, if you've ever had a boss or colleague at work who made it feel like you were there with friends just communicating about things of mutual interest? Socializing for fun communication isn't restricted to just at parties with friends or at home. You might not want socializing to take over what you're trying to accomplish at work, but you need to be able to bring in at least a little more intimacy to create a more enjoyable communication no matter where you are or what you're doing. That involves sharing the joy of life that is within you with others. You can't truly be a social person without being yourself in relationship to others in communication. In this class, you'll learn what the true "social" aspect of communication is and how to do energy work to help you share more of who you are inside and the joy that is part of your inner life with others in communication. It's high time you enjoyed communicating with anyone about anything!
