Energy Work for Enjoying Who You Are

Dear Friends and Awakening Souls,

Do you know what every relationship is based on? Communication. Every healing begins with some kind of “hello”. In fact, the single most important function of your body is as an instrument for communication. As an immortal soul, you incarnated here in a world of time and space to learn to communicate. Communication is essential for you to create and to transform your life on your path to fulfilling your purpose.

When you communicate, you are creatively expressing who you are. And you creatively express yourself every moment of every day—even while you sleep—whether or not you are aware of it. You can’t help it because as spirit, you simply are. Being that you are fully creative by nature, you are always creating and being your creative self. So, you are continuously expressing your creative psychic self in this world, even when you believe you are silent, keeping a secret to yourself, or doing nothing at all. There are no secrets, no hiding. You can run, but you can’t hide—at least, not for long.

If you are creatively expressing yourself all the time anyway, you might as well become more aware of how and what you are communicating. Then, you would be able to more consciously choose how and what you communicate. After all, you are the light of the world. Isn’t it time you owned up to your function in this world? Remember, it doesn’t serve your purpose here to hide your brightness.

To help you realize your innate creative power and what you are already unconsciously expressing, and learn to communicate with awareness more of who you are in the world, we welcome you to join us for our brand new set of seven teleclasses, Create & Transform Your Life: Energy Work for Creatively Expressing Who You Are in the World, in our popular ongoing series, You Might Be More Psychic Than You Think! We welcome you to sign up for all or any of these teleclasses and learn to create and transform your communication and your life by stepping up your creative expression in the world as the light that you are.

Create & Transform Your Life:

Psychic Energy Work for Your Career & Work Life

03/05 Saturday 10 AM - 12 PM (PT)

TC57 - You are a Creative Being:

Energy Work for Making Space For Your Creativity

You are spirit incarnated in a body. That means you are and you have a body. Intrinsic to your beingness is your limitless creative power. You are a fully creative being. You are creating every moment of every day, even while you sleep. Yet, the nature of creating is that it has to be expressed. You cannot create and not express what you create. In order to express your creativity, you need to create the space and time for your expression to flow in. If you don't create enough of the energy space for you to express your creativity in, your creative power gets backed-up. And power is powerful. If you don't give yourself space for its expression, it can cause a lot of problems, heartaches, and pain. So, find out more about you as the creative being that you are and how to do psychic energy work to make much more space into which you can express your creative power. Both are essential for you to communicate who you are in this world.

04/02 Saturday 10 AM - 12 PM (PT)

TC58 - Creating Outside the Box:

Energy Work for Creating the Extraordinary

Ever felt like you were up against some kind of immovable wall and you couldn't progress? It's like nothing was working or whatever you knew to do wasn't enough to solve the problem or move things along? Or, you might have wanted to do something different, to create something out of the ordinary for a change. While it's definitely important to create some routines in your life to establish stability and consistency, when you seek to make a big change or transform your life in some fundamental way, you need to create outside the box of tradition, convention, or the routine. Create something new out of the air! So, learn to create something new out of nothing. In fact, all creation begins with a blank canvas, an empty page, a zero start. Learn to do psychic energy work to create something extraordinary where there wasn't anything like it before.

05/07 Saturday 10 AM - 12 PM (PT)

TC59 - Being in the World, Not of the World:

Energy Work for Showing Up

You are not of this world of time and space. Your body may have been born here and will eventually die here, but you are spirit, limitless and eternal. Your body may have to live by the strict rules governing this world, much like the characters in a video game have to function according to the programming of the game, but you are not bound by those same limitations. But, to claim your freedom as a spiritual being here, show up here in the world fully. And showing up fully means you have to be more present here as the spirit and creative psychic being that you are. It's time to learn how to do psychic energy work to help you be more present as the true psychic self that you are.

06/11 Saturday 10 AM - 12 PM (PT)

TC60 - Let Your Aura Speak for You:

Energy Work for Communicating Who You Are

As a creative soul, you are speaking all the time, not in words, but through the energy that you create. As you incarnate in physical form here, you express that energy around your body as your aura. Whether you are conscious of what you are communicating in this world or not, your communication has an impact. So, what is it you are already communicating? How do others around you respond to your communication? Discovering what you are saying through your aura continuously is essential to having great communication with others and creating fulfilling relationships. Learn to do psychic energy work to better express who you are in the world.

07/23 Saturday 10 AM - 12 PM (PT)

TC61 - Your Chakras & Your Creative Expression:

Energy Work for Tuning Up Your Chakras

Your chakras are energy-awareness-data centers in your energy body. You not only gather information from the world through your chakras, but you also express your creative potential into the world through them. So your chakras act as portals for your material manifestations and expressions. They serve a major function in helping you communicate in the world in a multitude of ways. When you keep your chakras healthy and tuned up, you are better able to communicate and express your creativity here. Of course, that's all essential to keeping you healthy as well. Learn to do psychic energy work to heal and tune-up your chakras so that you can stay healthy and express yourself more creatively.

08/13 Saturday 10 AM - 12 PM (PT)

TC62 - Finding Your Own Voice:

Energy Work for Speaking Your Truth

Finding your own authentic voice is not only for actors, singers, and writers. It's essential for every soul here in order to fulfill its true purpose. Besides souls incarnating in human form, all other creatures of nature don't have a problem communicating themselves just as they are. In fact, they can't do otherwise. A tree expresses itself as a tree—always. It can't express itself as a mouse. A mouse can only express itself as a mouse and not as anything else. Only a human can express itself like a flying bird by inventing an airplane or like a fish by riding in a boat. A human can design an elaborate costume to don and a stage to perform on as any character he or she wants to become. A human easily lies and tells made-up stories about him or herself in order to hide something from others or just for entertainment's sake. Above all, being something or someone or somehow different from one's true self is what a human soul does in order to survive. So when the human soul embarks upon its spiritual path of awakening, unbecoming of what it has become is a most-important part of its journey toward realizing the truth of its being. One aspect of that process of spiritual growth is finding your own authentic voice to communicate. Therefore finding one's voice has been an essential part of the writer's, actor's, and singer's path to mastering themselves and their art. You cannot hope to write your masterpiece if you were trying to be someone else. Before you can express your truth, find out who you are and find your own voice. Learn to do psychic energy work to help you discover your voice and speak your truth.

09/03 Saturday 10 AM - 12 PM (PT)

TC63 - You Are the Light of the World:

Energy Work for Enjoying Who You Are

You've heard that you are the light of the world. But do you know what that really means? It's not something you have to learn to become—you already are the light of the world. You can't be anything else. You can only pretend to be something other than that light. So eventually, you would have to own up to being the light of the world. You first have to become more aware of who you are and you have to learn to express the true you in the world. Since you are such a powerful creative being, you can definitely use your creativity to hide your light by living under a lampshade or in a dark closet or by pretending that you are not so bright. But, as Joe Louis, the legendary heavyweight boxing champ, said about his major opponent, "He can run but he can't hide." Don't postpone the inevitable. Be proactive. Let your light shine more brightly in the world by learning to do psychic energy work to help you enjoy who you are.
